Dear Bill,

Gosh, it was good seeing you yesterday. Thank you for taking the time. I have instructed our people to get you the information on Africa that we talked about.

Our little get-together at the Links Club was a success. Tap Bennett stopped by for a drink with us. Your ears should have been burning. Except for the fact that Baroody held forth a little too much, everybody got a word in edgewise. (I like Jamill, too).

Great seeing you.

Sincerely,

George Bush
